

NON-FICTION TEXT FEATURE DEFINITIONS

Table of contents: A table of contents gives the heading and beginning page number of each section in a book.

Heading: A heading tells you what the section is about.

Photograph: A photograph is a picture made with a camera that shows how things look in real life.

Label: A label is a word that tells about a picture.

Caption: A caption is a sentence that tells about a picture.

Bold Print: Bold print shows you new or important words.

Colored Print: Colored print shows you new or important words.

Glossary: A glossary lists new or important words and shows or tells what they mean.

Index: An index tells you what page to find information in a book. It is in ABC order.

Diagram: A diagram is a labeled picture that shows the parts of something.

Size Comparison Diagram: A size comparison is a diagram that compares the size of one thing to another.

Pictograph: A pictograph is a graph that uses pictures to show and compare information.

Bar Graph: A bar graph is a graph that uses bars to show and compare information.

Map: A map is a picture that shows the location of things or places.

Table: A table is a chart of information used to compare things.

Timeline: A timeline is a chart that shows events in order.